GATES NOT ACTING FOR U. S. STEEL CO.

By Associated Press

Chicago, Aug. 22. — John W. Gates, chairman of the board of directors of the United States Steel company, has returned to Chicago from the east. When asked as to the truth of the report that John W. Gates is trying to get possession of the Colorado Fuel and Iron company for the United States Steel company Mr. Gates said:

"The United States Steel company has nothing to do with the matter. About a year ago we did try to get possession of the Colorado Fuel and Iron to the extent of making an offer for the property. They made a counter off, and neither proposition was satisfactory to the other party. That ended the negotiations and they have not since been renewed. Mr. Gates is not acting for the United States Steel company."

A NOTEWORTHY ADDRESS BY PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT

First Address he Was Prepared to Deliver Except for the Death of the Wife of Mr. [illegible] Marks the Natural Result of the Dinner.

[illegible] Yet I think you will agree with me that in the long run the best way in which to serve any one of our citizens is to serve all alike with justice, with a firm insistence of fairness and justice to all, to give to each man his rights, to safeguard each man in his right, and so far as in us lies while I hold my present position I will be true to the conception of my duty. And if I have finished what I have to say that was shaped by the very touching and pleasing incident of this afternoon reception.

Now I want to speak to you tonight not of our internal problems as a nation but on one of the external problems which we have had to face during the last four years. The internal problems are the most important. Keeping our household straight first, but there are other duties. Just exactly as each man who earns his salt must first of all be a good husband and a good father, a good citizen and a good neighbor, and then some stranger comes and would have stepped in and seized the lands and fair children up the task which he in such case would have been hindered from performing, a less easy but infinitely more absurd one would be to leave the Philippine islands a prey to any foreign power that would not permit anyone else to interfere with them. This particular course would have combined all the possible disadvantages of every other course which was discussed. It would have placed us in a humiliating position because when the actual test came it would have been quite out of the question after some striking deed of sovereignty had been done in the islands to expect any other nation to keep out the civilization into them while the mere fact of our having the sole right to guarantee the independence of the islands kept outside not only Europeans or others who would have liked to dismember them, but also those Asiatic nations which are within striking distance of them.

Finally there was the course which we followed, not a easy course by any means, one fraught with danger and difficulty, as is usually the case in this world when some great task is to be opened. It is an honor to us to be called to undertake it. It stands. We must all unite to stand by the islands to put down lawlessness, to establish peace and then to introduce the full civilization of which we are the representatives by a measure of self-government. If any government which should be for the benefit of the islanders showed themselves fit for it. Well, it was certainly a formidable task, but think of the marvelously successful way in which it has been accomplished.

The first and vitally important fact was the establishment of the supremacy of the American flag and this had to be done by the effort of those gallant fellows, Americans of ours to whom a great debt is due, the officers and enlisted men of the United States regulars and volunteers. In a succession of campaigns marked by no unknown deeds of valor they broke through the insurgent forces and then under the most diverse conditions of climate and country our troops completely broke the power of the insurgents, sent the chief armies and humbled the back of other bands into submission. In its latter stages the war against our enemies sank into mere brigandage and what our troops had to do was to hunt down the parties of bandits. It was not a task which it was humanly possible to accomplish in a month or a year but month by month, year by year, with unwearied and patient resolution our army in the Philippines did the task which it found ready to hand and the last vestige of organized insurrection was stamped out. I do not refer to the Moros with whom we have exercised the utmost forbearance but who may force us to chastise them if they persist in attacking our troops. Among the Filipinos proper however peace has come. Doubtless here and there sporadic outbreaks of brigandage will occur from time to time but organized war against the American flag has ceased and there is no reason to apprehend its recurrence. Our army in the islands has been reduced until it is not a fourth of what it was at the time the outbreak was at its height.

Step by step as army conquered the rule of the military was supplanted by the rule of the civil authorities, the soldier was succeeded by the civilian magistrate. The utmost care has been exercised in choosing the best type of Americans for the high civil positions and the actual work of administration has been done so far as possible by native Filipino officials serving under these Americans. The success of the effort has been wonderful.

Never has this country had a more upright or an abler body of public representatives than Governor Taft and Vice Governor Wright and the subordinates in the Philippines. It is a very difficult matter practically to apply the principle of an orderly free government to an oriental people struggling upward out of barbarism and subjection. It is a task requiring infinite firmness, patience, tact, broad-mindedness. All these qualities and countless others have been found in the civil and military officers who have been sent over to administer the islands. It was of course inevitable that there should be occasional failures but it is astonishing how few these have been. Here and there the civil government which had been established in a given district had to be temporarily withdrawn because of some outbreak but at last on July 4 that has just passed on the 126th anniversary of our independence it was possible at the same time for me to declare amnesty throughout the islands and definitely to establish civil rule over all of them excepting the country of the Mohammedan Moros where the conditions were wholly different. Each inhabitant of the Philippines is now guaranteed his civil and religious rights, his rights to life, personal liberty and the pursuit of happiness, subject only to not infringing on the rights of others. It is worth noting that although the Philippine people have received a greater share of self-government that they have more to say as to how they shall be governed than is the case with the people of the orient which is under European rule. Nor is this all. Congress has with increasing wisdom, heartily supported all that has been done by the executive. Wise laws for the government of the Philippines have been placed upon the statute books, and under those laws provision is made for the introduction into the Philippines of representative government with only the delay necessary to allow for the establishment of definite peace, for the taking of a census, and the settling down of the country. In short we are governing the Filipinos primarily in their interest and for their very great benefit. And we have acted in practical fashion—not trying to lay down rules as to what should be done in the remote and uncertain future but turning our attention to the instant need of things and meeting that need in the fullest and simplest way.

It would be hard to say whether we owe most to our military or our civil representatives in the Philippines. The soldiers have shown splendid gallantry in the field and they have done no less admirable work in preparing the provinces for civil government. The civil authorities have shown the utmost wisdom in doing a very difficult and very important work of vast extent. It would be hard to find in modern times a better example of successful constructive statesmanship. Finally in the Philippines, as in Cuba, the instances of wrong doing among either our civil or military representatives have been astonishingly few, and punishment has been meted with even-handed justice to all offenders.

Nor should it be forgotten that while we have thus acted in the interest of islanders themselves we have also helped our own people. Our interests are as great in the Pacific as in the Atlantic. The welfare of California, Oregon and Washington is as vital to the nation as the welfare of New England, New York and the South Atlantic states.

The awakening of the Orient means very much to all the nations of christendom commercially no less than politically, and it would be short sighted statesmanship on our part to refuse to take the necessary steps to secure a proper share to our people of this commercial future. The possession of the Philippines has helped us in the securing of the open door in China, has helped us already the government has taken the necessary steps to provide for the laying of a Pacific cable under conditions which safeguard absolutely the interests of the American public. Our commerce with the east is growing rapidly. Events have abundantly justified alike from the moral and material standpoint all that we have done in the far east as a sequel to our war with Spain.

Tonight after his address at the Colisseum the president was the guest of Executive Secretary John T. Robinson on Asylum avenue. The president invited Mayor Sullivan to meet him at Mr. Robinson's house. The mayor is an ex-clerk who was elected by the laboring men, a fact with which the president was familiar and he expressed a desire to have a personal chat with Mr. Sullivan.

GOVERNOR TAFT RECEIVED OVATION IN MANILA

By Associated Press

Manila, Aug. 22.—Civil Governor Taft reached here this morning at daylight on board the United States gunboat General Alava from Singapore, Straits Settlements. He was welcomed with an enthusiastic popular demonstration.

The day had been made a holiday and the city was decorated. Eight large arches had been erected on the streets. Twenty thousand native from adjoining provinces participated in the demonstrations in honor of the governor's arrival. There was a parade of vessels in the bay and 30 decorated vessels carrying members of the civil commission, military officials and reception committee met the General Alava down the bay and escorted Governor Taft to the entrance of the Pasig river. The governor was escorted by a large procession to the palace in the walled city, where a public reception was held.

Responding to an address of welcome Governor Taft outlined the progress and the result of his negotiations at Rome in the matter of the Philippine friars and said all church questions were progressing toward a satisfactory settlement. The governor said the action taken by congress concerning the Philippine islands showed that the American people honestly desired to hold the Filipinos. The Americans were determined that the islands should not be exploited by Americans at the expense of the Filipinos.

Governor Taft predicted that eventually the archipelago would have practically free trade and he congratulated the Filipino people upon the restoration of peace. He advised the Filipinos to till the soil and restore their country rather than waste time in useless political agitation. He promised personally to labor for the natives and asked for their confidence and support.

Governor Taft was given an ovation on the streets of the city during his progress to the palace and he received an ovation at his reception.

GEORGE W. ANDREWS RESIGNS POSITION

The announcement was made public yesterday of the resignation of George W. Andrews as city passenger and ticket agent of the Rock Island route in this city. Mr. Andrews' resignation is to take effect the first of next month. After severing his connection with the road Mr. Andrews will visit friends and relatives in the east and take a vacation of 30 days before taking the position of general agent of the Pacific Coast Steamship company with headquarters at Puget Sound, Washington. Mr. Andrews has been connected with the Rock Island for a number of years but has only been city agent in Colorado Springs since April last. During his brief stay in the city however he has made many friends all of whom will be sorry to see him leave. It is understood that his new position is one of considerable importance as the company is one of the largest doing business on the coast and that the office he has received from the officials of the company is very flattering.

Mr. Andrews' successor has not been appointed as yet.

ORMAN WILL HAVE A FIRING SQUAD

That Governor Orman will not be without friends in the convention at the court house today was indicated by the action of the Democrats of precinct No. 8, Colorado City, last night.

Mike Kilcy, James Brophy and I. T. Jamison were named as delegates and it was stated after the primaries had closed that the delegation from this precinct would go to the convention to fight for the indorsement of Orman and for his renomination.

THOMAS' VERSION REVIVES ORDER

Former Governor's Answer to Charges Made by State Auditor.

Special to the Gazette

Denver, Aug. 22.—Ex-Governor Thomas today issued a reply to the charges which State Auditor Crouter made in explaining the charges that certain state funds had not been spent for the purposes for which they were appropriated. The reply of the ex-governor is extremely terse and cutting and shows that Mr. Thomas has lost none of his characteristic satire. The letter is as follows:

August 21, 1902.

Hon. C. W. Crouter, Auditor, etc.

Dear Sir:—The kindly illusions to myself with which your so called report upon the condition of the general incidental fund is freighted, were, I presume, intended either as a reply to the charges of the Post or to substitute me for the state auditing board as the real public offender. At least I can draw no other inference for the high standard of action which has always characterized you personal and official relations with others make it wholly impossible that you could have been actuated by any invidious motive. You will therefore pardon me if I attempt to show you wherein your purpose has miscarried.

Generally speaking the people do not care a rap who furnished data to the Post, nor what motive may have inspired its action. They want to know what the facts may be. If the published statements are true they will deal with the delinquents. It is time enough to weigh motives when then falsity is established. Nevertheless I frankly admit that it is the interest and for the information of the Denver clearing house and in compliance with my promise to it, members, I caused a compilation to be made not only of the warrants but of the vouchers therefor which had been drawn upon the general incidental fund since 1900. When requested to do so I turned them over to the Post. They are copies of public records to which all men have access and if any principle of ethics or morality has been transgressed by this procedure pray point to it.

It may be true that the attack is due to your refusal to honor the clearing house claim for otherwise I should have had neither time nor motive to ascertain what your board had done with the money appropriated for that purpose and perhaps no one else would have done so. I have an old fashioned idea that when a man obligates himself to pay or cause to be paid a lawful claim he should discharge it. In 1899 I pledged the credit of the state and promised that the pledge should be redeemed that our public institutions might not suffer or suspend. I have tried and am still trying (vainly perhaps) to get these people their money.

When I got this money I took chances as you say but those foreseen developed favorably. I never took or thought I was taking the chance that the official representatives of the purpose its pledged faith and favorable action but actually divert to other and alien purposes the fund it appropriated to make the promise good. I do not perceive the force of your insinuation that I dared not summon the general assembly in extra session lest it injure my chances for the senate. I am of course aware that no such motive has inspired any act of this administration still if you are right, my selfish apprehensions served one good purpose for it spared the state the infliction of an extra session.

But the head and front of my offending is that if these claims are not paid I will make war on the Democratic officials even if it resulted in the defeat of the Democratic ticket this fall. Now my dear sir, all this is very silly. I am seeking justice for honest creditors of the state whose claims are withheld for reasons that have been wholly disregarded in other cases. I am not making war. On the contrary I am as ashamed of the record as you can be.

Now let us come to the merits of your report. The funds of the clearing house were secured to carry emergency vouchers issued under the statute. These vouchers which were cashed constitute the real claim of the clearing house. They were perfectly lawful and the fact that they were taken up and cashed by one concern does not change their character. The situation was called to the attention of the general assembly and it promptly recognized the justice not only of these but of similar claims of the previous administration. Both houses concluded to cover them in the temporary appropriation bill and the item of $251,500 was intended for that purpose and no other. You know it! Every member of the executive department knows it. Senators and representatives of unquestioned veracity have assured me that you were all consulted about it before the step was taken and it was agreed upon as the most expeditious way of liquidating an emergency debt. I went to see you upon the subject having first seen the attorney-general. You wanted to consult your own attorney, Hon. C. F. Herrington. I acquainted him with the facts and I do not think you will deny that he advised you to proceed. You have not done so. You and you only of the board of auditors have refused to pay the claims.

But if the appropriation was not available for the purpose mentioned it was certainly available for no other. It was by the act itself limited to the executive and judicial expenses for December, 1900, and January, February and March 1901. The general assembly emphasized this condition by appropriating $90,000 for the remainder of the fiscal period. This was the usual and customary appropriation but wholly unnecessary if $250,000 had previously been devoted to the purpose. It may be that the attorney general advised you that the two taken as a whole were to constitute one fund for general purposes, but if so it is hardly consistent with his recent action in advising you to devote the remnant to the payment of the clearing house claim. Besides such an opinion does violence to the language of the act and perverts the plain intention of the general assembly.

If the objection urged to the clearing house claim be good, it should be generally applicable. If I understand it you contend that a debt or deficiency created and arising in one year cannot be liquidated out of the revenues of another year without a special act of appropriation therefor. Even then it must be postponed to the payment of fourth or fifth class claims. Why has not this rule been followed? Why has it been almost uniformly disregarded?

You tell the public that "something more than $35,000 paid to the Smith-Brooks Printing company was upon bills allowed near the close of the Thomas administration, for the printing of the biennial reports of the several departments of state for the years 1899 and 1900. Until you produce the record showing such an allowance I shall challenge the correctness of this statement. No such sum was ever allowed or paid for printing biennial reports. It exceeds the amount therefore appropriated for the printing bill for all the departments including the general assembly. But assuming it to be true what authority had you for paying it from the revenues of 1901 and 1902, by drawing upon the general incidental fund for that purpose?

As to this item, you know very well that an express appropriation is always made by the succeeding legislature to cover it and you have but to turn to page 42 of the Session Laws of 1901 to find that $25,000 was set apart for this and other matters. By your own statement you have paid for printing reports some $10,000 in excess of the appropriation therefor.

Again let us take the item of extra session expenses which aggregate, according to your report $11,606.38. The session was held in 1902, but $4,729 of this expense was drawn against the revenue of 1901 and all of it was paid in the very teeth of the statute which limits the fund to incidental and contingent expenses of the several executive and judicial departments and state bureaus. Of this sum $1,525.38 was used to reimburse the capitol building fund which had presumably been depleted for legislative purposes. Will you tell us by what law or authority you assumed to reimburse the capitol building fund out of the general incidental fund or by what law or authority the capitol building fund was used for the payment of legislative expenses?

We will now consider your explanation of the four "mysterious warrants." That I may not misrepresent, I quote it in full:

These four mysterious warrants, aggregating $15,178.65 were drawn upon vouchers which had been issued for various small sums to persons to whom state institutions had become indebted during the Adams administration. Up to the time I drew these warrants I assumed that the deficiency claims could properly be paid out of the general incidental fund. These vouchers being deficiency vouchers I drew warrants for them intending thereafter to draw warrants for the other deficiency claims upon this general incidental fund. When these four mysterious warrants were presented to the state treasurer in the usual course of business for registration and he refused to register them, I began to make inquiries into the question of paying any deficiency claims out of the general incidental fund. After taking advice I concluded that such payment was not proper and therefore withdrew the four warrants referred to, returned the vouchers to the owners and canceled said four warrants.

The date of these warrants was December 13, 1901. You had long previously decided to honor the clearing house claims for the identical reasons which you now say resulted from the advice taken on that occasion. You also made a second effort to have those warrants registered and only destroyed them after the effort failed. You drew them for claims which had never been presented to the auditing board and of which it knew nothing although the act expressly requires the board to audit every bill or voucher calling for a warrant from that fund. Comment is unnecessary.

Your understanding of an incidental fund is extremely interesting when contrasted with the tenderness of your official conscience concerning the clearing house claims. Under its protection you could easily furnish liquor and cigars to all your friends and make it as durable and subservient as the governor's contingent fund has been. I wonder that under the construction you limited you extra clerical force to four or five when fifty were clamoring for places. The definition is ingenious, but too lax to meet with judicial approbation. The new revenue law doubtless increased the labors of the auditors' office but the general assembly anticipated this by providing for and therefore limiting you to one extra clerk for you and four for the secretary of state if the bill should become a law. What was to be done? Why, you should have made your force put in longer hours and worked yourself a little. I do not know what the hours of toil in your department are, but I know some of your force have abundant leisure. At any rate their appearance in the streets at all hours would indicate that they work on the night force, if at all. Wouldn't it look just a little better if the "steadies" worked a little more making the number of "extras" a little less?

I know nothing personally about double salaries but it is easy to perceive that the system of extra allowances to employes is subject to abuse. It was not permitted under the Adams and Thomas administrations and should not be now.

Your report contains a full list of warrants drawn against the general incidental fund. Won't you publish the vouchers for them? You say the printing contract of 1900 was excessive. Do you know its items? Publish it. Do the vouchers conform to it? That you had to pay over $35,000 for printing department reports of the old administration. Where are the vouchers? The contract hardly covers a tithe of the items for which the Smith-Brooks company have been paid. It cannot include binding blank printing, books, "extra for linen" and for "canvas covers," etc. Let the public but see your vouchers and you will call upon the mountains to hide you.

The items which constitute the huge total of incidental expenditure will either sustain or crush you. If the former, public sentiment will justly condemn those whom you reproach for injustice if the latter you can hardly hope to find refuge in denouncing the agencies by which your transactions have been revealed.

I shall continue, if I live, to advocate and effect the payment of the clearing house claims and I greatly mistake the spirit of justice, fairness, honesty and manhood prevalent in this commonwealth if they are not speedily liquidated.

C. S. THOMAS.

Democratic Convention To Take Place Today

It is expected that the Democratic convention which meets this morning at 11 o'clock in the county court house will send a delegation to the state convention instructed for Judge Stimson for governor and for Senator Henry M. Teller. The result of the primaries showed conclusively that the Stimsonites will control the convention by an overwhelming majority and in fact it is not believed that whatever strength Mr. Graham may polled in the convention will be manifested.

There will be 15 delegates in the convention which will be called to order by Chairman G. W. Musgrove. The object of the convention is to select delegates to the state congressional, legislative and senatorial conventions soon to be held and to nominate a candidate for county commissioner. The senatorial convention delegations will be to the Twenty-eighth and the Third senatorial district conventions, Teller county having been placed in both districts. A fight may be made to have the delegates to the state convention go uninstructed, but with the Stimson faction holding the whip hand so decisively it is doubtful if this can be attained.

The name of Ed Knowles from the northeastern section of the city will probably be presented for the nomination to county commissioner.

To Keep Broadmoor Open All the Year

Manager Bell of the Broadmoor has decided to keep the resort open for the entire year. This is a new departure, heretofore it has been customary to close down the popular resort during the winter months. It is certain to be a profitable move and one which will be greatly appreciated by the patronage of the casino.

It seems that an impression has gone abroad in some manner that Mr. Bailey intended closing down the casino for the season yesterday and he hastened to come out in a card stating that the hotel

To Complete Flower Show Auction Today

Exhibits at the flower show were sold at auction last night and flowers, fruits and vegetables went like the proverbial hot cakes. In fact trade was so brisk that it was impossible to complete the sale entirely last night and this morning at 9 o'clock there will be a further sale at which it is expected all the stock on hand will be entirely cleaned up. Throughout the show has been a great success. Last night was an extra night.

Yesterday afternoon and evening a special musical programme was rendered for the benefit of the visitors at the show and it was greatly enjoyed. The tents were well filled and those who took advantage of the last opportunity to see the show were well repaid. The payment of premiums will be made on August 30 all the awards having been made. The winners in very numerous and it will take a little time to get things in readiness to give out the premiums. The officers of the Horticultural association are to be congratulated upon the success of the show, which augurs well for the exhibits of the future.

SAYS THE JAIL NEEDS NEW PIPES

City Plumbing Inspector Gets After County Commissioners.

REPAIRING IS INADEQUATE

Says the Entire Plumbing in County Bastile Is Out of Date and Out of Repair and Must Be Replaced.

El Paso county's jail is in a sanitary condition which to say the least is deplorable. As it now stands it is a disease breeding menace to the prisoners confined there to the men compelled to work in it and to the community. It is imperative that the county commissioners take steps in the near future to remedy the conditions.

C. P. Quinlan city plumbing inspector has called the attention of the authorities to the jail on a number of occasions and has based his reports and suggestions upon personal investigations of the sanitary condition of the jail. So far the board of county commissioners has taken no definite action looking to any improvement.

The whole fault lies with the plumbing of the county bastile. The jail was constructed some 15 years ago under plans which so far as the plumbing is concerned were standard at that time. There was no particular law governing the matter but then the plumbing arrangements were supposed to answer all requirements as they did. Fifteen years is a long time however, and with the lapse of the years the plumbing has gone out of date long since and as compared with work of the present day is crude in the extreme. Corrosion has continued until now the pipes are in a state beyond repair and are absolutely foul. The plumbing ventilation is also in a very bad state and should be replaced altogether with a new system.

With the present plumbing the sewers in the jail frequently back up and flood the floors of the building. They are inadequate to do the work required of them now. Quite a number of prisoners are confined in the jail at all times and the conditions are a menace to their health. In the opinion of the plumbing inspector it is a great wonder that there has not been an epidemic of typhoid and other disease in the jail brought about by the unsanitary conditions.

At the request of the board of county commissioners Mr. Quinlan has furnished them with a complete list of specifications for the work required and also an estimate on the total cost. His specifications are so detailed that the commissioners can get an exact estimate at once from contractors without doing the work by the day, an arrangement which would be much more expensive in the long run. So far they have not acted on the plumbing inspector's recommendations. The commissioners say that one reason for not doing the work at once is that they have no money. Mr. Quinlan has made several inspections of the jail and he is emphatic in his opinion that the need for immediate improvement is urgent.

In regard to the dispatches in last night's papers stating that the Kansas & Southern railroad had passed into the hands of a receiver, a prominent railroad man and capitalist visiting in the city, said: "No less than three big trunk lines running into the southwest have had jealous eyes on this proposition to build from Omaha to Emporia, Kansas, and each has been carefully watching the other for fear it would come to the terminus and in order to catch the immense amount of traffic tributary to it while the little road struggled to extend unaided. However I predict that a year's time will see this road which has one of the best propositions in the middle west being built by one of the companies in that locality to which it would be a powerful feeder opening up a rich country traversed by no north and south line and more important still giving a gateway to Omaha from the southwest and gulf which it surely needs."

Feeney Touched for Nine Scattered Hits but Springs Lost.

ANOTHER OF SERIES GONE

Congalton Was a Star in Batting—Hemphill Was Also Good at Stick Work.

Special to the Gazette.

Des Moines, Ia., Aug. 22.—Des Moines won today by superior batting and fielding. Feeney who pitched for the locals was reached safely nine times, but he dropped the hits well scattered and the batting of the visitors was not effective. On the other hand Des Moines bunched her hits in a most timely manner. A base on balls, a single, two sacrifice hits and a stolen base gave Des Moines two in the first. Four hits, one of them a double, added two in the sixth, and in the eighth a base on balls, three singles and a double added four more. A free pass to Fleming, and singles by Congalton and Hemphill gave the visitors one in the fourth; singles by Fleming, Hemphill, Hollingsworth and Grainville added one in the sixth; and Fleming's life at first on an error and Congalton's two-bagger made their last tally in the eighth. The feature of the game was the batting and fielding of O'Leary and the batting of Congalton.

QUALIFYING ROUND FOR CARNIVAL CUP

The qualifying round at handicap medal play, eighteen holes, for the "Carnival" cup presented by Dunbar Carpenter, will be played on the golf links of the Town and Gown Golf club this afternoon. The entries will close at noon and the drawing will be posted immediately afterwards. The eight who score the highest in the medal play will qualify Monday, Wednesday and Friday of next week. The final winner of these matches will be awarded the cup. There are about 25 entries up to the present time and the tournament promises to be full of interest. Among those entered are W. K. Jewett and F. E. Howland, two who have won the cup at previous tournaments. Mr. Jewett now holds the cup, having won it in 1900. Mr. Howland won it in 1899. All that is necessary for either of these gentlemen to become the permanent holder of the cup is for him to win it this year. But if someone else takes it, another tournament will have to be played next year.

INTERNATIONAL TENNIS

By Associated Press.

Newport, R. I., Aug. 22.—The tennis at the fourth day of the international championship at the casino was made noteworthy by the defeat of Dr. Joshua Pim, a former champion of all England, by E. F. Ware of Boston, accomplished the downfall of the British veteran and did it in straight sets. This match was, however, only one of a number of interesting contests, in which that between M. D. Whitman and Beals C. Wright attracted the most attention. Whitman winning three sets to one. In this latter event the absence of daring smashes and the fast, close work at the net made the sport rather dull to watch, and half the crowd went over to see the contest between H. L. Doherty and Richard Stevens. Here they found the excitement which they craved, for by playing his steady base line game Stevens not only took a set from the Englishman, but came within a single stroke of another. With the sets one all the game went to four and the score to 40-30. Stevens missed scoring on a fine pass by inches, the ball going just that distance outside. Doherty then evened matters without difficulty, and although Stevens won another game, the Englishman ran out the set, 8-6. The next went to him, 6 to 1, and the match was finished.

PERSONAL

FAMOUS LYCEUM MANAGER IS HERE.

Is at the Home of Dr. Horn on Nevada Avenue—Has Managed Many Stars.

Major J. B. Pond, the famous manager of the lyceum course and who, in past years, has had some of the best known celebrities in his charge, is visiting here for a short time, being the guest of Dr. Horn at the latter's residence, corner of Boulder and Nevada avenues.

Major Pond has probably had more personal business dealings with famous men than any other individual living. He has managed the tours of Dr. Talmage and numerous other noted lecturers when they appeared on the platform in this country and in Europe and in doing so has gained a reputation as well known and as world-wide as any of his "stars."

Major Pond is here for a rest.

DEATH CLAIMED PROF. ALONZO M. COLLETT

Hardly was the honeymoon of Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Collett on the wane when grim Death, respecter of none, stepped in and sundered them forever. Mr. Collett died yesterday in the Homeopathic hospital in Denver after an illness with typhoid fever extending over about a month. The funeral will take place Sunday at 4 o'clock in Denver.

No happier wedding of two young lives was ever celebrated than that which joined Alonzo M. Collett and Miss Della Gleyre in this city June 18 last. Mrs. Collett is the daughter of Mrs. S. S. Stewart and was one of Colorado Springs' most popular young ladies. Mr. Collett was scientific director of the East Denver High school for the past ten years and was regarded as one of the most capable men in that institution. He was thought to be improving a few days ago but suffered a relapse and death came. The young widow has the sympathy of a wide circle of friends in Colorado Springs.

No Summer Bowel Troubles

Not for me! I'm safe from all of them and happy. The heat of summer causes organic matter everywhere to decay. All dead vegetable or animal matter rots if not kept on ice. All undigested food in the human body will ferment a hundred times as quickly in summer as in winter. Consequence—stomach, liver, bowels poisoned, thrown out of order—sour stomach, gases, colic, diarrhoea, dysentery, cholera, appendicitis, and in some regions yellow fever and the plague. Little children suffer terribly everywhere. What does good sense tell you to do? You can't keep the human body on ice, and the drinking of ice-cold drinks does more harm than good because it stops digestion and chills the internal organs. The proper thing is to keep all impure and unnecessary matter out of the body every day, not give it a chance to sour and decay in the stomach and bowels, and poison the blood and the whole body. In this way you will stop all hot, feverish conditions, and keep your insides cool and healthy. To do it, use a medicine that is not offensive to the taste and not harsh and violent in its action. There is only one safe system-cleaner to take in the summer time, because it will not cause diarrhoea or griping, and that is

ANOTHER ADVENTURE OF SHERLOCK HOLMES.

By A. CONAN DOYLE,
Author of "The Green Flag," and "The Great Boer War."

MY DEAR ROBINSON.

It was your first account of a west country legend which first suggested the idea of this tale to my mind. For this, and for the help which you gave me in its evolution, all thanks. Yours most truly.

CHAPTER XI.

The Man on the Tor.

The extract from my private diary which forms the last chapter has brought my narrative up to the 18th of October, a time when these strange events began to move swiftly towards their terrible conclusion. The incidents of the next few days are so vividly graven upon my recollection, and I can tell them without reference to the notes made at the time, that I shall draw from the diary which succeeded that upon which I had established two facts of great importance, the one that Mrs. Laura Lyons of Coombe Tracey had written to Sir Charles Baskerville and made an appointment with him at the very place and hour that he met his death, the other that the lurking man upon the moor was to be found among the stone huts upon the hillside. With these two facts in my possession I felt that either my intelligence or my courage must be deficient if I could not throw some further light upon those dark places.

I had no opportunity to tell the lonely Mortimer, who spent his evenings with his cards until it was very late. At breakfast, however, I related to him all that the lady had told me, and I asked him whether he would come to accompany me to Coombe Tracey. At first he was very eager for the journey, but on second thoughts it seemed to both of us that if I went alone the results might be better. The more formal we made the visit the less information we might obtain. I left Sir Henry behind, therefore, not without some misgivings as to the result of my venture, and drove off upon my new quest.

When I reached Coombe Tracey I left Perkins to put up the horses, and I made inquiries as to the lady whom I had come to interview. I had no difficulty in finding her house, which was central and well appointed. A maid showed me in without ceremony, and as I entered the sitting-room a lady, who was sitting before a Remington typewriter, sprang up with a look of simple welcome. Her face fell, however, when she saw that I was a stranger, and she resumed her seat and I got the other full in my view.

The first impression left by Mrs. Lyons was one of extreme beauty. Her eyes and hair were of the same rich hazel color, and her cheeks, though considerably freckled, were flushed with the exquisite bloom of the brunette, the dainty pink which lurks at the heart of the subdued rose. Admiration was, I repeat, the first impression. But the second was criticism. There was something subtle wrong with the face, some coarseness of expression, some hardness, perhaps, of eye, some looseness of lip which marred its perfect beauty. But these, of course, were after-thoughts. At the moment I was simply conscious that I was in the presence of a very handsome woman, and that she was asking me the reason for my visit. I had not quite understood until that moment how my errand might be interpreted.

"I have the pleasure," said I, "of knowing your father."

It was a clumsy introduction and the lady made me feel it.

"There is nothing in common between my father and me," she said. "I owe him nothing, and his friends are not mine. If it were not for the late Sir Charles Baskerville and some other kind hearts I might have starved for all that my father cared."

"It was about the late Sir Charles Baskerville that I have come here to see you."

The freckles started out on the lady's face.

"What can I tell you about him?" she asked, and her fingers played nervously over the keys of her typewriter.

"You knew him, did you not?"

"I have already said that I owe a great deal to his kindness. If I am able to support myself it is largely due to the interest which he took in my unhappy situation."

"Did you correspond with him?"

The lady looked quickly up with an angry gleam in her hazel eyes.

"What is the object of these questions?" she asked, sharply.

"The object is to avoid a public scandal. It is better that I should ask them here than that the matter should pass outside our control."

She was silent and her face was still very pale. At last she looked up with something reckless and defiant in her manner.

"Well, I'll answer," she said. "What do you want to know?"

"Did you correspond with Sir Charles?"

"I certainly took the liberty of writing to him once when_ I_ felt_ that__ he_ was__ a_ gentleman_ and_ a_ gentleman_ in_ his_ generosity."

"Have you all dates of those letters?"

"No."

"Have you any of them?"

Lansing Leasing Company Mining Good Ore in Old Whipp & Glenn Shaft of Pinnacle Company---Good Work on Cameron School Section.

Special to the Gazette.

Cripple Creek, Aug. 22. The Lansing Leasing company, operating the old Whipp & Glenn shaft of the Pinnacle company, have recovered the lead of high grade this property famous [illegible] of high grade and is [illegible] good ore at a depth of 500 feet. The company now have a shipment ready for market and assays on the ore indicate that it is of good smelting grade. Whipp & Glenn made this lease from their lease but the ore [illegible] work was suspended. The Lansing company sunk the shaft [illegible] feet and are again [illegible]. At the Mitchell shaft of the property and lessees J. M. M[illegible] William Hilderbrand got [illegible] shipment sent out [illegible] return of $[illegible] in gold [illegible]. The ore lead in the [illegible] feet in width and [illegible] fully 30 inches. At the Cameron lease the work [illegible] and the lessees are [illegible] shipments. On block 3 [illegible] the 500 foot level in [illegible] shoot within ten [illegible]. This shoot is producing good [illegible] the 600 level and if it proves [illegible] 100 feet below this point [illegible] consideration. A raise will be started [illegible] the 500 level on block 3 [illegible] have the new plant of machinery in operation and are now hoisting fresh ore. Building a crew to [illegible] will be [illegible].

Patrick Hill, lessee of the Rainbow Bell hill, has cut and showing at a depth of 50 feet where he is now drifting on the vein. It is thought that this vein is an extension of the big ore shoot recently opened by the War Eagle Leasing company, operating the War Eagle property.

Flaherty Brothers, leasing a block of the El Paso company's Bonanza hill territory just north of the new shaft, will send out a 25-carload shipment tomorrow. One car contains coarse rock, expected to average $20 in gold to the ton. The other contains screenings worth fully six ounces in gold to the ton. The ore shows plenty of sylvanite but development work indicates that the values of the big vein are spotty.

The Portland M. and L. company has commenced the work of cross-cutting the Hornsby Britt on Bull hill at a depth of [illegible] feet. The company expects to put the extension of the Wild Horse vein.

Shutt and Ferland have secured [illegible] on the south block of the Dante [illegible] on Bull hill and have already [illegible] ounces of work. The lessees are now following a vein carrying a small body of fine quality ore.

Dolz Hurd Wilson leasing on the Annex of the Golden Cycle company sent out two carloads of $40 ore this week.

Mitchell and Carrendon operating a lease on the Deadwood No. 2 sent out a carload shipment of high-grade ore this week expected to average $100 in gold to the ton. In addition to this the lessees marketed a carload of $100 screenings.

In the Canterbury Hill region north of Gillett considerable work is being done. The deepest shaft in that section is the Hidden Treasure which is now down 200 feet, and fully equipped.

SAYS SABBATH RAISE SETS CAMP TO BOOM

General Manager De La Vergne Returned From Camp Last Night and Says He Thinks the Stock Is Now About Where It Should Be.

[illegible] of the party [illegible] the Bull Hill Ore Mining [illegible] On the strength of this [illegible] the stock went up [illegible] giving the [illegible] the 11th level it is not [illegible] how long it will last or exactly what it will prove to be but now the rock across the entire vein when broken up makes good ore. The mine is in a very good condition and prospectively spunky it is excellent. I observe that the stock went back today [illegible] however and I am inclined to the opinion that that is about where it ought to be at the present time. The condition of the mine does not warrant any great rise.

The lessees at work above us in the mine are having good success. They are faithful people long and are meeting with good success. In the 11th level we are now working one shift but we are being crowded to the point where it is necessary to work two shifts.

General Manager De La Vergne also [illegible] of the creation of pumping in the Elkton, portion of which he and [illegible] to be given information received [illegible].

STRICT BUSINESS ELKTON

Strict Business Policy Is Pursued by the Company---Pumping Is Being Stopped.

[illegible] of the Elkton Gold Mining company has [illegible] a strictly business system in [illegible] the mine. As has been [illegible] the company has [illegible] up on the [illegible] until the pipes at time they [illegible] about 80 gallons per minute. Work in the eighth level has been entirely suspended and a bulkhead has been erected to hold back the flow of water in that level. All work now being done is from the upper [illegible] of the mine.

[illegible] their handling of the water problem which has proven so serious a matter during the past year the management is at the present time [illegible] arranging the shifts at the mine with a view to the more economical handling of the ore. It is not their intention to either materially reduce the number of men employed or in any way [illegible] the production. Whatever [illegible] done in this line has been done with a view to obtaining the best results with the least expenditure. With the changes and readjustments now [illegible] the Elkton will be in a position to work their property to the best advantage.

The general impression among mining men is that the cessation of pumping on the Elkton will not have any adverse influence upon the other Raven hill properties. As the Elkton is the deepest mine on the water course they have in the past been doing the greater part of the pumping but as the adjoining shafts are not as deep as the Elkton it is not believed that any flooding of adjacent properties will result. Should the contrary prove the case, however, it is believed it will result in hastening the construction of the much needed and much discussed drainage tunnel.

FALSE REPORTS OF THE PORTLAND WATER STRIKE

Various sensational rumors have been afloat in mining circles during the past few days regarding the flow of water in the Portland mine. Inquiry of President James F. Burns revealed the falsity of these rumors. According to Mr. Burns' statement the Portland is now pumping but 450 gallons a minute while there have been times in the history of the mine when 2,800 gallons per minute have been raised. Mr. Burns stated emphatically that no new flow of water has been encountered recently and the mine is having no trouble in handling all its flow. Some two weeks ago a body of water was uncovered in shaft No. [illegible] in which no pump was installed. The company at once placed a small pump in the shaft and changed the piping to accommodate the new flow. After the pump began raising the shaft was drained in two hours. This is the only new flow of water which the Portland has had in some time and even if a new flow is encountered the present battery of pumps is fully capable of handling it.

THE DANDY DEALS

[illegible] OF OWNERSHIP

The deed which was recorded in the office of the county clerk of Teller county on Monday transferring the property of the Joe Dandy mine and a portion of the Constantine from W. Coe and D. H. Rice of this city to the Joe Dandy Gold Mining company, now appears not to have been a change in ownership. Mr. Coe and Dr. Rice have organized the properties as individuals for one time and the new transaction is simply an act of incorporation. The property owned by the new company is located on Raven hill and has been a steady shipper. There will be no change either in management or policy. Mr. Coe is managing the property and will continue to do so. A small force of men is kept steadily at work and steady shipments are maintained. The property is regarded as a valuable one.

Mining Notes Around Town

NEW AIR HOIST FOR MODOC PROPERTY.

The winze which the Modoc company has been sinking from the lower level of the mine has reached such a depth that it was no longer economical to windlass the rock so the management has recently installed a new air hoist. While the new hoist is of small size it will greatly expedite the work.

LESSEES ON NEVADA KING IN GOOD ORE.

The lessees operating on the Nevada King of the Little Puck company are taking out ore which runs $65 a ton, that being the figure on which the last shipment was settled. This ore is coming from drifts run out north and south from the shaft at the 160-foot point. The ore body varies from one foot to several feet in width, but the grade is remarkably high. The lessees are also engaged in making an uprise from the Climax tunnel to connect with the shaft and have already progressed 140 feet. It will be necessary to cut about 70 feet more. The shaft is at present 385 feet deep.

This property is in the most excellent shape and considerable ore is in sight although only enough is being taken out to pay the cost of the development work now in progress. Owing to the poor ventilation in the mine at the present time no lateral work is being done and all ore met with in development is allowed to stand until the ventilation can be improved by air connections.

SALE REPORTED FROM LARIMER COUNTY.

Messrs. George Daugherty, Fred McAvoy and Joseph Richards, all of Walden have purchased the Mountain King and Pardner lode claims in the Pearl district, Larimer county. Both are copper-silver propositions and give promise of becoming producers. These claims were very recently located and their sale at this time is taken as evidence of increasing confidence in the Pearl district. The new owners propose beginning active operations at once.

SHIPMENT MADE FROM THE ACACIA PROPERTY.

Wyatt and associates, who have a lease on the Morning Star claim of the Acacia company, have encountered ore in the 200-foot level and are engaged in breaking rock preparatory to making a shipment. It is expected that the ore will average about $30 per ton.

DEVELOPING ORE BODY ON FLYING CLOUD.

The strike which was announced on the Flying Cloud property at Cameron on the north slope of Bull hill, is showing up even better than was at first expected. Development work is being pushed as rapidly as possible and yesterday there were 20 inches of ore exposed that will average about $30 to the ton. Unusual interest attaches to this discovery as it is the first strike made on that slope of the hill for some months. It is expected renewed activity in that section of the camp will result.

The vein as already opened is about four feet in width and is located in the hanging wall, the ore being found on the west side. The ore is situated at what is thought to be the junction of the Flying Cloud and Margaret veins. The operators intend sinking a shaft as soon as the direction of the vein is ascertained. At present it is impossible to estimate the extent of the ore body.

FIRST SHIPMENT FROM HAWKEYE IS MADE.

The first shipment of ore from Gillett since the old Lincoln mine ceased shipping, was made yesterday from the Hawkeye property, on which a sensational find was recently made. Parkinson and partner who are operating the property are of the opinion that the streak opened up will prove even greater than was at first thought. They are pushing the work of development ahead with all speed and already the shaft is down 53 feet. The entire bottom of the shaft is in ore, carrying values that will average $30 per ton. If the shipment made yesterday proves the assays to be correct, it will have the effect of creating a new interest in the north portion of the camp.

LESSEES ON WORK ARE SHIPPING.

Word received in this city yesterday was to the effect that the lessees operating on the Work property had begun shipping. The ore body upon which they are at work is sufficiently extensive to lead to the belief that the shipments can be kept up regularly. No returns have yet been received from these shipments but the assays show high values.

EASTERN MARKETS

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

Report of Ladenburg, Thalmann & Co., to William A. Otis & Co.:

New York, Aug. 22.—The market was strong and at times active under pool operations and some following on the continued fine crop and business outlook. The general expectation of a rather favorable bank statement tomorrow, too, influencing some buying. Money rates continue easy and the known movements of money this week show a small gain to the banks. Weather conditions in the west are entirely satisfactory and railway earnings continue to show fine increases, notably among those published today, those of Rock Island for the month of June. The dismissal of the Peter Power suit against the Northern Securities had a favorable effect and while there were no developments in the coal strike situation, collieries and works are being got ready for operation and it is generally believed that the end of the strike is not far off. Lower priced issues again made up the bulk of the activity and some new high records were made. Industrials, too, were more active than for some time. C. F. & I. after a further break in the early dealings rallied and was strong at the advance. No further developments in the contest. Mr. Morgan is considering but has not announced his decision as to the disposition and method of financing L. & N. The close was strong, not far from the best of the day.

London sold about 15,000 shares on balance today.

COTTON MARKET.

Report of McIntyre & Marshall, to William A. Otis & Co.:

New York, Aug. 22.—Interest in trading today centered in the August option where shortly before the opening it became known that a large number of notices were being issued tendering delivery on contracts for this month. The break in the quotation was very sharp and while a recovery took place there was considerable liquidation though it is understood that a number of notices were stopped by spot houses and a larger number bought in by parties issuing them. While the general list showed recoveries later in the day, indicating a somewhat broader market, as a result of commission house buying, the market was nervous and sentiment much mixed. Liverpool was active in sympathy with us and it is thought heavy realizing sales were made earlier in the day though a better tone developed in that market before the close. The crop news of the day was a continuation of hot, dry weather almost without exception throughout the belt, the exception being good rains in North Carolina and showers in Alabama. The temperatures, however, were very high and this feature of the situation is the cause of much apprehension, as it is undoubtedly producing a development of the crop much too rapid to allow a full yield of the fruitage, as the loss in squares and young bolls will be very great and in a measure offset the gain made by dry weather. The world's visible as compared with last year shows a gain and with a heavy movement of crop promised, this effect on the market is apt to continue. It remains to be seen what it will count for. It is a weather market at present. We look for activity and continue to advise profit taking and sales for the short account at 8 cents or over for the next crop options.

CHICAGO GRAIN & PROVISIONS.

Report of Logan & Bryan to William A. Otis & Co.:

Chicago, Aug. 22.—Wheat—Liverpool ⅛@1d higher. Paris unchanged to ¼ higher. Antwerp ⅛ higher. The market was, on the whole, about steady. There was a strong opening on the higher calles, but this was lost later, on moderate profit-taking and a generally dull market. Cash demand is fairly good, but the volume of general speculative interest is not large. Broomhall reports Argentine crop much in need of rain with the Liverpool firmness partially on that. Elevator concerns in the northwest pay the farmers' deliveries of wheat are materially less than the same period last year. It must be taken into account, however, that the harvest last year was about two weeks earlier. The congested condition of September wheat operates against speculative confidence in this market. It still looks like a scalping market. Estimated cars, 295.

Corn—Liverpool ½@2½ higher. There was a further scramble to cover September shorts at the opening, which carried the price of that option to 59⅝ cents. This demand being satisfied, the reaction was equally sharp. Prospects of a little better weather make profit-taking in the deferred futures, which cost the price something. Receipts continue small and though demand is only moderate stocks are gradually being reduced. We still feel that December and May corn in the neighborhood of 40 and below are low enough and should be bought on weak spots. The trade is guessing on the probability of September manipulation, but we see no indications of it. Estimated cars, 35.

Oats—Less rain and the prospects of rather better weather the next 24 hours made liquidation enough to carry the market off moderately. Oats had a sharp advance from the low point and with favorable weather, some further reaction may come. We are inclined to think 30 cent oats, however, are low enough. Estimated cars, 275.

Provisions—The market was a shade easier. Prices are well supported and the control of the cash stuff is in strong hands. There is a large short interest in May and January at what seems excessive discount. Cash demand is fair.

COFFEE LETTER.

Boston, Aug. 22.—Coppers passed another dull and featureless day. There was again good buying of Amalgamated, Bingham showed some selling pressure at opening and was given fairly good support. As a whole there is practically no selling pressure in coppers and there are a good lot of buying orders just under the market, all the time. We think the coppers are likely to be taken in hand almost any time and given a good start upward.

The London Market.

By Associated Press.

New York, Aug. 22.—The Commercial Advertiser's London financial cablegram says:

Realizations on the eve of the settlement caused a dullness in trading. The American department was much quieter. The reaction in New York is bringing local speculators to a sudden halt. Prices opened around parities and hardened on Wall street buying of the coalers, Denver & Rio Grande and Southern Railway. In the street prices sagged again. Consols sold at 95⅝. Rio Tinto slumped to 42⅞ on the poor dividend outlook. Of the one year treasury bills £1,000,000 have been allotted to an average of just over 2⅞ per cent.

Metal Market.

By Associated Press.

New York, Aug. 22.—Domestic metal markets were quiet in the case of tin and copper easy. Tin declined 20 points on the inside price, spot at the close being quoted at $28.30@28.50; the English markets suffered a break of 15s, spot closing at £125 and futures £122.

In copper there is little doing locally and prices showed no important changes. Standard spot closed $10.85@11.25; lake, $11.50@11.70; electrolytic, $11.35@11.45, and casting, $11.25@11.40.

The foreign price was dropped 2s 6d to £51, 13s 9d for spot and to £52 for futures.

Dullness ruled the lead market, both domestic and foreign neither showing a change. The local price was 4⅝ and London quoted £11, 2s 6d.

Spelter was firm with moderate business reported. Spot closed at $5.50.

The English market was steady and unchanged at £18, 17s 6d.

Iron prices remained as last quoted for domestic supply, the market having a firm undertone. Warrants were still nominal. No. 1 foundry northern, $23.00@25.00; No. 2 foundry northern, $22.00@23.00; No. 1 foundry southern, $22.00@23.00; No. 1 foundry southern soft, $23.00@23.50.

English markets were quiet. Glasgow closed 57s 7d and Middlesboro 53s 11½d.

Denver Live Stock.

Denver, Aug. 22.—Cattle—Cattle receipts were rather light today, but some of the offerings were of good quality. There were ten carloads of steers from Wolcott, Colo., that were pronounced the best that have been on the market for some time, being better than the Hills cattle that arrived yesterday and sold at $5.10. Stuff was late in weighing up and the best Wolcott offerings had not been reported at a late hour. Some of these cattle sold at 5 cents, but this did not embrace the best of the offerings. The demand is very good and market rules full steady. Demand for feeders is splendid and only a few offerings on the market, they not being of very good quality. There are plenty of buyers here for good feeders, and when it comes to the good grades there is not nearly enough for the demand. The outlook for a good run of cattle is encouraging and commission men are well pleased with the outlook for a thriving business here this fall. Cattle are selling as well, and in many instances even better, on this market than they are at the river.

Hogs—The hog market ruled firm today and values were from 10c to 15c higher. The top here today was $7.10 for good hogs. Packers say that they can now use light hogs to good advantage and even prefer them to the heavier offerings. Receipts were light and all the offerings sold except one carload, which arrived late.

Sheep—The only arrivals today were sixteen carloads of New Mexican lambs, being the first New Mexican lambs on the market this season. They were feeder lambs and were going on to St. Louis. They were of good quality.

Money Market.

By Associated Press.

New York, Aug. 22.—Money on call steady at 3½@4 per cent.; closing bid and asked 3@4 per cent. Prime mercantile paper, 4⅝@5 per cent.

Sterling exchange easier, with actual business in banker's bills at $4.8715 for demand and at $4.8430 for 60 days. Posted rates, $4.86@4.85½ and $4.88; commercial bills, $4.83⅝@4.84⅞.

Bar silver, 52⅝. Mexican dollars, 41¼.

COLORADO SPRINGS MINING STOCK EXCHANGE

Colorado Springs, August 22.—The market this morning was sensational in the amount of stock changing hands, but prices as a rule were a trifle lower than yesterday. Elkton and Isabella were the stocks chiefly dealt in, the former selling to the extent of 35,000 shares at a slight falling off in price and the latter selling up to 50,000 shares at a smaller loss, closing at 35¾. Gold Dollar Consolidated was another heavy trader, also losing over yesterday's quotation. Easter Bell led the preferred prospects as regards number of sales, but the price was stationary. Morning Star was another heavy trader, also at the same figure. Sunset-Eclipse lost fractionally. In the prospects list Horseshoe led in the amount of sales. Nearly all stocks in this list sold at yesterday's prices.

BABY'S VOICE

Is the joy of the household, for without it no happiness can be complete. How sweet the picture of mother and babe, angels smile at it, and commend the thoughts and aspirations of the mother bending over the cradle. The ordeal through which the expectant mother must pass, however, is so full of danger and suffering that she looks forward to the hour when she shall enjoy the exquisite thrill of motherhood with indescribable dread and fear. Every woman should know that the danger, pain and horror of child-birth can be entirely avoided by the use of Mother's Friend, a scientific liniment for external use only, which toughens and renders pliable all the parts, and assists nature in its sublime work. By its aid thousands of women have passed this ordeal in perfect safety without pain. Sold at $1.00 per bottle by druggists. Our book of price and testimony all for an asked free. F. W. HAMLIN

Prominent and Wealthy Lumber Merchant of Mancos, Formerly of This City, Died Suddenly Thursday Night.

Frederick W. Hamlin, a second cousin of Hannibal Hamlin, who was vice president under Lincoln, died suddenly at Ed L. Rice's former home near the Garden of the Gods Thursday night. Apoplexy is given as the cause of death.

Mr. Hamlin at one time lived in Colorado Springs, being engaged in the lumber business with a man named Heibler under the firm name of Heibler-Hamlin. They sold out some years ago to the El Paso Lumber company and went to Mancos, where they established a lumber business again and where the deceased was making his home, the firm being still in existence there. He came to Colorado Springs on a short vacation and had been spending most of his time around Colorado City and Manitou, staying at Rice's old place, he having been an old friend of "Fatty" Rice, as Ed L. Rice, deceased, was known.

Mr. Hamlin was a very corpulent man, weighing in the neighborhood of 350 pounds. He became ill at Colorado City Thursday and was taken to Rice's, where he died that night. He had apparently been in good health up to the time of his attack. The body was brought to Colorado Springs last night and was taken in charge by Hallett & Baker, undertakers. Last night it was shipped to Mancos for burial.

The deceased comes of a very old and famous family. He himself was quite wealthy, being the possessor of several hundred thousand dollars of this world's goods, most of which he had accumulated in the lumber business.

At his home in Mancos, which is a small town in the San Luis valley, he was a well known and a highly respected citizen. He was well remembered by many Colorado Springs people, and the news of his death came as quite a shock to them. Hamlin was about 47 years old and leaves a family at Mancos. The interment will probably take place there.

Last Small Crops of Street Fair Tonight

This afternoon and tonight the people of Colorado Springs will have their last chance to participate in an Elks street fair. This class of entertainment has been very popular throughout the country, but the grand lodge at its late session held in Salt Lake City voted that there should be no more of them.

There was the usual big crowd last evening and the fun of the fair grows faster and more furious as the nights go by. The close tonight should see one of the biggest crowds that has ever come together in the city. The crowds are very cosmopolitan, too, and all classes mingle.

"What does confetti taste like?"

"Why, it tastes like, oh, chew, piff, like, piff. Oh, the horrid stuff! Just quit that."

The biggest afternoon crowd of the week will be out this afternoon. The Country Jake band will be on the grounds afternoon and evening. It is worth the price of admission to see them up in the Ferris wheel playing "The Dutch Company."

At the fair this evening the famous postbole contest will be decided. The contestants who tied at the first trial will dig. The battle of the confetti will be waged again, and a night of such merriment as has very seldom been seen will close the exhibition.

Preceeding the big fair this evening will be the illuminated run of the fire department. It will take place on Weber street between Bijou and Huerfano. There will be plenty of time to see the spectacle first and the fair later.

SOUVENIRS GIVEN TO SUNNY SIDE GUESTS

At the regular weekly dance at the Sunny Side Thursday night, Captain Rogers presented the guests with an appropriate little souvenir of the occasion. The captain is something of a poet, and it has been his custom for several years to commemorate the festive evenings at the Sunny Side with verses of his own composition. The verses which the guests received Thursday night printed on a neat card are as follows:

THE LIGHT FANTASTIC TOE OF 1902
AT THE SUNNY SIDE HOUSE, MANITOU.

Awake to the thrill of the trembling harp,
And quivering strain of fiddle string,
While we dream of a day long passed away,
Of gleaming eyes in the shadows dim.

Never think of years, of sorrows and fears,
Or the joys we've tasted,
Or the years we've wasted
Only to know in the evening glow
The mellow strains that greet our ears.

Our days alas of the shadowy past
Teach us to love the happy chance
Where passing time and merry chime
Guide happy feet in evening dance.

On with the dance and happy chance
While trembling maid my arms entwine
May I blush and sigh
To the end of love.

Let the drowsy moon in the gathering gloom
Or breaking day and rosy morn
Find Cupid's dart in every heart,
Not pain but joy in the bleeding wound.

MANSIONS WAITERS HAVE ENTERTAINMENT

Guests at the Minnelons hotel will be treated to a unique entertainment this evening, when the dining room of the hotel will be transformed into a miniature minstrel hall for the house. The help of the hotel will give a genuine old southern entertainment, which will include singing by six jubileers from Birmingham and New Orleans. There will also be coke walking and other minstrel features.

Watch for a Chill.

However slight at this time of year and in this climate, it is the forerunner of malaria. A disposition to yawn, and an all tired out feeling even comes before the chill. The wound while it bled profusely and is quite painful will not result seriously. The ball narrowly missed Mr. Williams.

AN OFF DAY. Yesterday was the easiest day the hotel men of the city have had since the present tourist rush set in. All the hotels are well filled and some are still turning away guests, but yesterday's arrivals were fewer than for many days past. This does not necessarily indicate that the summer business is beginning to drop off, but it was simply an off day. The regular guests who are making extended stays in this vicinity have not yet begun to depart, but it is expected they will begin returning to their homes in another week or two.

AT ALTA VISTA. Captain Jack Crawford, the poet scout, a guest of the Alta Vista, has offered to give one of his interesting entertainments in the hotel this evening after the usual concert by the orchestra. A very pleasant evening is expected by the guests. The public is invited.

Your Plumbing

Should be a matter of serious concern and should receive careful attention at the hands of the owner. It does not pay to put in cheap plumbing. There is no part of the construction of a house that will be as unsatisfactory both as to the fixtures and workmanship. On the other hand there is nothing which appeals so strongly to the fastidious and careful housewife and that will be so great a source of enjoyment as modern high grade plumbing properly installed. Our work is the best obtainable. Our prices are low, consistent with good work. Your patronage solicited.

NEWS NOTES FROM VICTOR

Work Upon New Water System Will Now Be Rushed to Completion.

Victor Bureau
Colorado Springs Gazette

Victor Aug 22. The city council met in executive session this afternoon and settled the differences existing between the city of Victor and Grace Clark and J. H. Anderson the owners of the Happy Thought placer. District Judge Seeds upon application of the owners of the ground granted an injunction restraining the Victor contractors from laying a pipe across the Happy Thought placer to connect the reservoir with the main pipe line. With this matter disposed of work upon Victor's new water system will be rushed to completion.

Henry Peter while employed taking samples in a stope at Strattons Independence property this morning at 11 o'clock fell a distance of 60 feet badly fracturing his right leg. He also sustained other painful bruises. The unfortunate man was removed to the Victor hospital and later taken to the Sisters hospital at Colorado Springs. The fracture is a serious one that may or may not certainly be set to whether or not the limb can be saved.

The Degree of Honor lodge No 10 of Victor tonight entertained a large crowd at Eagles hall with a banquet and social. Everyone present passed a very enjoyable evening.

T. B. Henley the partner of the late J. J. Godfrey, who recently died in the Victor hospital has purchased the Godfrey interest in the business on North Fourth street. In the future Mr. Henley will conduct the business in his own name.

The [illegible] of St. Marks guild at Pinnacle park on Wednesday the 27th has been postponed on account of the fact that the Knights of Pythias will celebrate on that day. The picnic will take place on Friday August 29 at Pinnacle park.

H. A. Shipman manager of Stratton's Independence has returned from his western trip. During his absence he has attended the reunion of the Elks at Salt Lake and he Knights of Pythias session at San Francisco.

Chas. Ely returned today from his trip through the northwest. Mr. Ely states that he spent two months in the Thunder mountain district and that although there is a good showing there it does not compare with Cripple Creek.

F. J. Mills the [illegible] who has the plan for the new Victor Catholic church returned to his home this morning after inspecting the work that has been done on the structure.

The Victor Lincoln Republican club held a largely attended and very enthusiastic meeting this evening in a vacant store room on South Fourth street. This was the first meeting that has been held for some months past but nevertheless fully 100 Republicans were present. In the meeting there developed quite a little friendly rivalry between Postmaster F. M. Reardon and those opposed to Mr. Reardon. The meeting was called for the purpose of reorganizing the club and getting in shape for the fall campaign. Frank W. Frewen called the meeting to order and at once tended his resignation as chairman. Judge J. W. Huff who led the anti Reardon forces in the meeting was elected temporary chairman and L. L. Willey temporary secretary. Mr. F. M. Reardon made a brief speech and confined his remarks almost entirely to national issues. Judge Huff also made an enthusiastic address in which he reviewed the past present and future of the republican party. Nominations were then made to select officers for the ensuing year. For president of the organization F. W. Frewen and Judge Huff were nominated. Mr. Frewen received 9 votes and Judge Huff 8 votes. T. D. Hall was elected vice president. Lewis P. Rudolph secretary and Oscar Sohl treasurer. A finance committee was elected as follows: J. H. Cunningham, A. A. Rollestone, C. F. Cooper, Col. Edgecomb and Judge J. W. Huff. The president at the next meeting will appoint an executive committee and a committee on membership. A resolution presented requesting each member to bring two applications blanks filled out to the next meeting of the club was passed unanimously. The membership roll tonight showed 61 names and a number of applications were handed in after the roll was read. The roll will be left at the office of T. D. Hall on South Fourth street with those wishing to do so may sign their names. The club will meet again on next Tuesday night.

The committees having in charge the Labor day celebration in the Cripple Creek district have presented their report. The committee on arrangements consisting of Daniel Griffith chairman, F. W. Dougin secretary, A. J. Urquhart, T. H. Kelly and Ludvig Peterson and the parade committee consisting of L. F. Coll, R. F. Murphy and Frank Phenion have completed all necessary details for one of the largest Labor day celebrations ever held in this district. A big parade to include every union man and woman in the camp will traverse the principal streets of Victor on the morning of September 1 and in the afternoon at Pinnacle park a fine program of sports will be carried out. The address of the day will be delivered at Pinnacle park at 4 p. m. by Lieutenant Governor D. C. Coates. On Labor day the Short Line will run trains from Cripple Creek, Victor and intermediate points to the park every 30 minutes.

CHARLES R. SIEBER SHOT BY HARRIS

Charles R. Sieber Killed by Joe Harris.

WITNESSES CALL IT MURDER

Harris Is Said to Have Made Threats Against Sieber Who Was Widely Known and Much Respected

Special to the Gazette

Strand Junction Aug. 22. News was brought to this North Park junction at noon today that Charles R. Sieber the large cattleman in western Colorado and a resident of this city had been killed at the cow camp at Pinon mesa this morning at an early hour. One of the cowboys from the camp brought the news to this city. The cause of the killing is not known but is thought to have been brought about by a dispute over cattle. None of the men in the camp heard the two men quarreling. The following is a portion of the statement of Gavin the cowboy who brought the news to the city:

I was lying about the camp when I saw Mr. Sieber and Joe Harris approaching. They stopped when they came about 100 feet from me and seemed to be having an earnest conversation. I saw Harris pull his gun and he fired three times. Mr. Sieber fell and Harris rode off in the direction of Westwater.

The body of Sieber was brought to this city late this afternoon. Harris was arrested at Westwater and brought here on a freight train and is now in the county jail.

The Sieber Cattle Co is composed of the two Thatcher brothers of Pueblo and Mr. Sieber and it is estimated that the company owns over 12,000 head of cattle which are on the ranges in western Colorado and eastern Utah.

Jim Lines the foreman of the company who accompanied the body to this city states without any reservation that the killing was one of the most cold blooded murders ever committed in this county. He does not hesitate to make this assertion openly and boldly. He further states that Harris had said that he would get both Mr. Sieber and himself meaning Lines.

There has been considerable excitement on the streets over the murder. The deceased was widely known throughout this western country and enjoyed the utmost respect of everyone. There is deep sorrow over his untimely death and a disposition to see that the law takes its full course. Charles R. Sieber was born in Germany 57 years ago and has been a resident of Mesa county for the past 16 years. He leaves a wife and 11 children and an estate worth many thousand dollars.

ORMAN TRYING TO REPAIR HIS FENCES IN FLORENCE

Special to the Gazette

Florence Aug 22. Governor Jarvis B. Orman accompanied by Warden Martin of the penitentiary spent the afternoon in Florence. While the governor looks well physically mentally he appeared to be much perturbed. He earnestly learned upon reaching the city that the majority of the anti Maupin people appeared to favor Judge Stimson for governor and that while the Maupinites have ostensibly been for Orman for governor they are really nursing the Maupin boom. These are the conditions that seem to trouble the governor considerably and he spent a very busy afternoon among the battling Democrats of Florence apparently with little success. Following close upon his visit comes the report from the coal camps that they are anti Orman and strongly opposed to his renomination owing to his attitude in connection with the ventilation bill or what was known as Senate Bill No 300 fighting for a split air system of ventilating coal mines. The Democrats of Florence are very busy getting ready for the primaries tomorrow night which will decide whether there shall be a Maupin Orman or Stimson delegation to the county convention but the chances are decidedly in favor of Judge Stimson. The Democrats are divided and a lively contest is predicted. Already two sets of delegates to the convention have been filed and it matters not which of the forces goes to the county convention, to be held in Canon City Monday, it means that there will be a general split in the party. At tomorrow's primary a general scrap between the Orman and Maupin factions for the gubernatorial candidacy is expected to take place.

Alfred Murphy pleaded guilty this afternoon to swimming in and polluting the water of the city reservoir and was bound over to the district court. The city council has been considerably annoyed for the past two months about prominent men of the city using the reservoir as a bathing pool. On account of this several families have ceased using the reservoir water, and are digging wells in their yards to secure water for domestic purposes.

Mrs. Mollie Allen, of South Fork, Ky., says she has prevented attacks of cholera morbus by taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets when she felt an attack coming on. Such attacks are usually caused by indigestion and these Tablets are just what is needed to cleanse the stomach and ward off the approaching attack. Attacks of bilious colic may be prevented in the same way. For sale by all druggists.

PROBABLY THE LAST CHANCE To see the GRAND CANON and ROYAL GORGE and visit the Colorado state penitentiary. Excursion train leaves Manitou 8 a. m., Colorado Springs 8 30 a. m. $3 00 round trip. You will always regret it if you don't go.

WALSENBURG

(Special Correspondence.)

Walsenburg August 21.—A big fire broke out on the west side of the Greenhorn Lake Tuesday afternoon and now about 18 acres of the best and thickest part of the timber on the range has been destroyed. The fire is thought to have been started by campers who were camping there until last Monday. The people who were seen last to go on the range to camp were in a covered wagon and came from the eastern part of the state. When leaving camp Monday evening they went in a northwesterly direction. It is not thought that they purposely set the fire, but that it was started from some live coals that was left behind. Every effort was put forth to subdue the mad rush of the flames as soon as discovered. A high wind soon began to blow, driving the fire

I tried every thing to relieve them to which failed until I tried White's Cream Vermifuge the first two doses brought four worms from one of them the next two doses two, one of them measuring twelve inches the other child was only relieved of four worms. It is a most excellent medicine." White's Cream Vermifuge is gone for children. It not only destroys worms it helps the child to perfect health with only small shot. Be cured and kills the worms we will keep the skin of the animal as a trophy. 25c at Hedley Arcularius Drug Co.

The Best Book

"The Mississippi Bubble" by Emerson Hough, according to the last Bookman, is the most popular book in the United States.

The Buffalo Courier says: It is a book of unusual charm, ever human in interest, pure in its English. Its unfailing power to interest has in a few short weeks assured its popularity beyond the dreams of its author and publishers. If a deserving novel can find permanence in the sea of popularity, "The Mississippi Bubble" will endure the storms and live to be read by future generations."

TOOK THE MONEY AND THEN LOST HIS NERVE

Possibly with a desire to emulate the famed Mr. Terry Joseph Lemer, 18 years old yesterday robbed the ranch here of W. J. Pring near Fillmore north of here and then after an exciting chase lasting for days with a revolver menacing his pursuers. He finally surrendered and Deputy Sheriff Drake landed him in the county jail for safekeeping.

Prince came from Ohio and had been working as a ranch hand for Mr. Pring about two weeks. Yesterday he was given his discharge and paid off for his service. Mr. Pring had left the house and Mr. Pring was alone when Prince was acquainted with the fact and returned to the house and robbed the house and ranch. Mr. Pring returned from a ride after and discovered both the robber and the robbery. He immediately gave chase and pursued Prince to Pring station. Their Pring secured the aged who had a Winchester rifle and the two took up the pursuit together. They chased Prince for two miles and then the young robber had. When he perceived some men he was ready with a revolver and stood them off for some time. He was finally prevailed upon to drop the weapon and surrender himself.

He was taken to Monument where he had a preliminary examination before Justice J. P. Elliott pleading guilty to larceny and robbery, though by reasoning should have been hanged. He was bound over to the district court to appear at the September term. The sheriff's office was notified and Deputy Drake went to Monument Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. He drove up the road with the prisoner and catching No. 1 at Palmer Lake brought Prince to Colorado Spring.

DENVER VS. PUEBLO AT COLORADO CITY GROUND

Colorado City may be the battling ground of the Colorado Fuel & Iron company team of Pueblo and the Old Homesteads of Denver for the amateur championship of the state. For some time the managers of the two teams have been talking of a series of games to settle the disputed point but they have been unable to agree upon a neutral ground. Manager Alex Mark of the Pueblo team has expressed a willingness to try the matter out in Colorado City where neither team has any sympathizers to speak of, and this offer would be satisfactory to the Denver aggregation. The Old Homestead have beaten the C. F. & I. company team a couple of games, and the defeats still rankle in the breasts of the Pueblo people. They claim that they can make more money for both teams if the game is played at Pueblo, but the Denverites do not seem willing to go there. They are as a matter of fact entitled to have the game played in Denver, as they have visited the Pueblo grounds. It is likely that the question of playing at Colorado City will be decided in the next few days. The Fuel company team will be here Sunday to play Colorado City at Boulevard park.

RAILROAD MEN FIGURED IN PICTURE SHOW

General Manager Sells of the Colorado road and Colonel George W. Valleyo of the Burlington were the unsuspecting heroes of the moving picture show at Cheyenne park last night and it all came about the usual way through the acquaintance of a young girl scarcely five years old.

While the pictures were being run the young lady sat on a front seat down near the pike where the view is easily caught and reflected by the big screen which is over a mile long. The picture showing the departure of the trains from Moulton station was announced. It starts with a view of the lower portion of the yards and one train leaves for the summit. Then Mr. Sells gets anxious about the apparent delay of the second train and runs in front of the camera toward the conductor who could not read his signal on account of the smoke. Just as Mr. Sells appeared on the screen the young lady in the front row bounded. Why, there goes Mr. Sells running away from the camera. Why I thought he would do just the opposite. The smoke was handed by everyone present and a loud shout went up. Just at that instant the picture changed and Mr. Sells disappeared on the screen and made his bow to the audience and all the little act the was not in the bill.

Mr. Valleyo was taken during the run of the Indian Limited which was made at Sheridan. We saw a wreck ago. One of the crew with a broken head is in a superb temper and vows to test the eye for the court. The resemblance to Valleyo is quite striking and the youthful friend in the front row promptly announced Why, there's Mr. Valleyo of the Burlington and he is dressed like Buffalo Bill. We did not hear the correct name but he didn't have the nerve to call for the prize for the boy who could tell the truck burro. He took eight the crowd in no instant and later it was explained that Mr. Valleyo had worn a evening suit the night before and the judge at the Denver arrival and forgot the necessary cash when he offered the prize.

H. H. Buck offer last night to swear word for word that the moving picture film of the colorado Southern train sprinklers had arrived and in a delay too with the remainder over the wire. The picture will be shown at Cheyenne park in a day or two and run every night for a week. Last night the crowd was larger than ever and the chilly weather and the threatening were quite enough. The Pike Peak scenic picture was easily the star of the evening. It will run only three more nights so the sooner which is tomorrow the park this week will have only three more opportunities of seeing the film of modern photography before it goes off to the city park at Denver.

BALL GAME SUNDAY AT BOULEVARD PARK

The ball game at Boulevard park Sunday between the Fuel Leagues and Colorado City and Pueblo will be first one an hour time. Players good. Fall. The Fuel and Colorado City have slightly the best of it as they have three western leagues with them. Manager Gaines of the Colorado City team has a team of strength and he team is the all three of two fast men and he fought with resistance of the Fuel will find the game. Jack Holland the umpire will be a horseman of the Millo and last year will umpire the game. Also only and no doubt a large crowd will witness the game.

Mrs. Woodruff's [illegible] Proved Fatal Last Night

After days of intense suffering from Bright's disease death came to relieve Mrs. Ida Belle Woodruff. She passed away at 11 o'clock last night at about 11 o'clock. The body was taken to Boyle's undertaking parlors where it lay last night and will be taken to Divide, former home of the deceased, for interment the funeral being at 11 o'clock this morning.

Mrs. Woodruff was fatally burned by a kerosene explosion on August 12 at her home near the Colorado City and Manitou car line. She was cooking on a hickory fire and was using kerosene to start the fire. She lighted a newspaper and the kerosene ignited with the result that the contents of the can were thrown on her dress. She was immediately enveloped in flames and was terribly burned before assistance could reach her.

For some days it was thought that Mrs. Woodruff would recover. She was given the best medical attendance and seemed to improve right along. The suffer became two drinking cups, however, and on Wednesday of this week she was brought to St. Francis hospital. Her condition was such that she was beyond medical aid and she never rallied.

Mrs. Woodruff was the wife of John Woodruff a stage driver, and came to Colorado Springs with her husband last March. She leaves two children, a boy and a girl, 9 and 11 years of age, respectively. She was a member of the Women of Woodcraft and buried in that order.

Wildflower Excursion Raced [illegible] Bloodhounds

Six hundred persons had an exciting ride with a cloudburst yesterday afternoon and lived to tell the tale.

It was indeed good luck the Colorado Midland wildflower train escaped serious delay. If nothing worse on the return trip. When the train was nearing the Green Lake at Florissant dense black clouds gathered from the depths of which the most startling bolts of lightning flashed. Little did the passengers follow the flash that [illegible] in apprehension. Times [illegible] of from an occasional peal or two, plenty of rain were scattered by the storm.

Conductor Phelps and Engineer Dennis knew that the course of safety lay in flight and so over the tracks was taken to Divide. After a ride of two or three miles it seemed to have passed in the rear and there were only scattering drops of rain. In the north however a cloudburst could easily be seen and the long sweeping streaks of rain clouds seemed more remarkable. The passengers watched the battling of the elements and began to feel thankful that they had escaped the full fury.

At Woodland Park several inches of hail covered the ground and a stop was made to allow the people to snowball. Suddenly from the mountains to the south came a singular roaring sound. The conductor and engineer realized the meaning and at once started the train for Colorado Springs. Owing to the soft track and temporary roadbed left from the floods of three weeks ago fast time was impossible but the train dropped up rapidly as safety would permit. Then came the race with the cloudburst. The pace seemed altogether too slow. From every gulch and ditch north of the track a dark stream of dirty water poured toward the rails. At one place the flood had just struck a crib of ties which supported the rails. Two minutes later the train could have passed for the ties were undermined as soon as the rushing wave struck them. For five miles down the canon the train just kept in advance of the water and at Green Mountain Falls a special messenger was hurriedly sent to the dispatcher to stop all trains and send trackmen to the scene of damage immediately. The message was sent just in time. Freight train No. 43 with three heavy engines was due at Woodland Park just as the message was received and by that time the condition of the railroad was such that only good luck would have averted trouble.

On the wildflower train there was a very good reason for the very good reason that the passengers did not realize the efforts that were being made to keep them from inconvenience and delay above a washout. After the water subsided a careful examination of the roadbed was made with the result that even after temporary repairs had been made "slow" orders were issued and trackmen ordered to patrol the section constantly until this morning.

[illegible] Chorus Sang to Small Crowd

What was lacking in numbers was made up in appreciativeness by the audience that was present last night at the last regular session of the Garden of the Gods Chautauqua assembly. The occasion was the first appearance in public of the Chautauqua chorus that has been training for the last two weeks under the leadership of Professor William A. Willett of Chicago. Every number on the program brought forth loud applause from the audience and it is needless to say that the applause was well merited. There were only about 150 people present to listen to the concert and the fact "that Colorado Springs people do not know a good thing when they see it," was again demonstrated last night but not to the financial benefit of the Chautauqua association who are at the present time over $3,000 in debt, owing to their earnest desire to give the people of Colorado Springs and vicinity an institution that would be of benefit to them.

In the afternoon Chancellor W. F. McDowell of Denver university addressed a small but interested audience on "Chinese Gordon and Cecil Rhodes." This lecture according to everyone who heard it is by far the best that has been delivered before the Chautauqua this season. Chancellor McDowell is a brilliant speaker and his descriptions and comparisons of the lives of these two great men, were exceedingly interesting. In view of the fact that so few people were present to hear this lecture the Chautauqua association have secured Chancellor McDowell to deliver his lecture next Monday evening at the First Methodist church in this city and it is their earnest desire that a large crowd be present to greet him, not only that the association may get more funds with which to make up the deficit, but in order that the people may receive the benefits that the lecture is sure to bring them.

Among the numbers on the program last night, the opening and closing numbers, "Send Out Thy Light," by Gounod, and "The Song of the Vikings," by Fanning, as rendered by 50 of the best male and female voices in Colorado Springs were especially well received, as was also the "Inflammatus" by Rossini by Miss Cordell and the chorus.

The solo parts by Mrs. H. H. Seldomridge, Mr. Blackman and Prof. Willetts were very pleasing to the audience and each had to respond to several encores. Professor Willett's solos were a feature of the evening.

Prof. Willetts possesses a baritone voice of a very fine quality, which for volume and fineness of tone cannot be excelled by any heard in this city for some time. His two selections, "Daybreak" and "Gloria" were well adapted to show off these qualities in his voice.

During the evening Mrs. C. L. Divin of this city, who has charge of the Chautauqua program, introduced Dr. W. H. W. Boyle of the First Presbyterian church to the audience. Dr. Boyle again announced his loyalty to the Chautauqua movement and responded with considerable emphasis his belief that the institution would be a permanent one and would score a greater success next year than this. Dr. Boyle also urged the friends of the Chautauqua to rally to its aid at the last sessions of the present season and to do everything in their power to lessen the burden of those gentlemen who have labored so hard for the success of the institution and who are now heavy losers in a financial way as a result of it.

Tuesday evening at Perkins Auditorium, Prof. Willett will give a song recital which, judging by the merits of last night's entertainment, should be heard by everyone in the city. An admission of 50 cents will be charged and it is earnestly hoped that a good sized audience will be present.

The program of last night's entertainment follows:

Mrs. H. H. Seldomridge.

URGES SETTLEMENT OF COAL STRIKE

By Associated Press.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Aug. 21.—T. W. Hall, chairman of the Public Alliance of Wilkesbarre, issued an address to the press and public tonight in which he urges that every influence be used to bring about a settlement of the coal strike by arbitration. He says the situation is now becoming acute and threatens every business in the strike region. Doubt is expressed at strike headquarters whether J. P. Morgan will use his influence with the presidents of the coal carrying railroads to bring the strike to a close and the sub-district officers of the United Mine Workers are of the same opinion as their chief officer, President John Mitchell, that the battle will have to be fought to a finish.

ARRESTS IN JAMAICA.

By Associated Press.

Kingston, Jamaica, Aug. 21.—Considerable excitement prevails at Montego Bay over the arrest of certain persons who possess influential connections on charges of complicity in the riots of last April. The police allege that the apprehended persons instigated the disorders. One of the accused has fled to the United States and the Jamaican authorities have commenced extradition proceedings against him.

Over 50 persons who participated in the riots have been recently sentenced to terms of imprisonment varying from two to 15 years. Other important arrests are expected momentarily.

TRADE WITH JAPAN.

By Associated Press.

Washington, August 21.—Japan is making an effort to develop her trade in Siberia, according to a report from United States Commercial Agent Greener at Vladivostock, dated June 27, which was made public at the state department today. Mr. Greener says that a Japanese commercial agent is making a tour of that vast territory to select eligible localities for consular representatives of Japan and to endeavor to ripen the trade of Japan there in various other ways. The agent is accompanied by three graduates of the official Japanese commercial school, all of whom are familiar with the Russian language.

pear and co-operation takes its place. He spoke of John W. Gates, John D. Rockefeller, Charles M. Schwab and John C. Osgood and other wealthy men as hastening the end of competition and the introduction of Socialism. He also dwelt upon the ill health of Rockefeller and said that he was merely paying the penalty of his greed for the almighty dollar, paying the penalty of his successes. The competitive system is war, said Mr. Debs, because in their struggle for commercial supremacy the nations of the world are paying high tribute to that ingenuity that can commit the most murder in the shortest time. He spoke of the South African and Philippine islands wars as being merely to open up new fields for the exploitation of capital and not for humanity's sake, as is being said. They were products of the competitive system. He told of the progress of Socialism in foreign countries and predicted that the time is near at hand when the minority will become the majority. Socialism is not a dream, he said, but a science based on an analysis of present conditions. It is not a dream or a scheme, he said, and he painted a rosy picture of the future to dawn upon the world under a reign of Socialist conditions.

ON COUNTING CHICKENS WHEN HATCHED.

THERE is a familiar proverb to the effect that chickens should not be counted before hatched and the wisdom of the caution is evident. But it follows as a reasonable inference that when the young brood has emerged from the shell it is a good plan to count them and size them up with a view of determining their future use and treatment.

When the Gazette began to urge the possibility of increasing the population of this city by bringing people here to live with permanent and concerted effort on the part of its permanent population, it was not many people were inclined to believe that such anticipations were unreasonable and absurd.

There was even a feeling prevalent to some extent that Colorado Springs was beginning to decline from the period of its greatest prosperity and that instead of making fresh efforts it people would sit down and prepare for a funeral.

Fortunately there were enough people who believed in the Gazette policy to determine the general control and course of the community, and the results are clearly apparent.

A conservative estimate of the number of people who have visited Colorado Springs in the last six months is not less than 10,000, and it only a portion of them are added to the permanent population of the city the increase is sufficient to satisfy all or effort and to prove the reasonableness of the projection of continuing with that have been made.

But as a matter of fact it is not only true that there has been a larger number of visitors in Colorado Springs than there have been before, but they have been better pleased with the city and its people and its future prospect than the tourists in any previous season have been.

The other day the Gazette called attention to the numerous improvements that have been made recently for the accommodation and entertainment of our visitors and the paper has frequently called attention to our permanent and long established attractions both for tourists and health seekers.

It is important also to bear in mind that at the present time there are a number of enterprises directly in hand about to be undertaken which will add very greatly to the drawing power of Colorado Springs as a place of permanent residence.

One of these things and possibly the most important is the project for one or more large sanitarium hotels established here in which invalids and convalescents may find the most improved medical method of treatment under the most favorable conditions. Colorado Springs ought readily to acquire a population of several thousand health seekers who would not otherwise come here if the proper sanitarium equipment were provided. We are glad to know that the recently organized Physicians are giving this matter their consideration and that favorable results may be expected in the near future.

Another new enterprise that will have a material bearing on the future of Colorado Springs is the construction of the magnificent new Science building of Colorado college. Let people realize as they should what an extent our college has grown and what an important institution it has become to this city. Then even a smaller number of people will appreciate the educational opportunities of Colorado Springs and how important a factor this may be made in the future growth and prosperity of this city. A college such as Colorado college seems likely to become, together with the various schools that will undoubtedly be located here in connection with the college or independent of it, is sufficient to serve as the basis for a large center of population even if there were no other basis upon which to build. The students of Colorado college, its professors and instructors and the various persons more or less directly dependent upon it will in the near future constitute a community of considerable proportions and the construction of this new Science building is a most important step in the direction of the development of Colorado Springs as an educational center and the bringing to this city of a most valuable class of population which would not be attracted to it in any other way.

Another project which the Gazette hopes to see undertaken in the near future is the building of a large first class hotel at Manitou. Manitou as a summer resort for people of wealth and fashion has attractions and advantages that are not equaled outside of this county and in some respects it is even superior to Colorado Springs. The opportunity existing at Manitou at the present time is one that would commend itself to any capitalist and intelligent investigator and the big, new hotel is so evidently needed that it seems reasonable to predict its construction in the near future.

The success of the summer campaign and the results already accomplished are such as to encourage a continuation of earnest effort. In a short time now the summer visitors will be gone and it will depend largely upon our own efforts how many people will be here for the winter. Now is the time to engage in the preparatory work of letting the people know what we have to offer. Colorado Springs is one of the best winter residence cities in the country. We have a warm, dry climate that is particularly adapted to a numerous class of invalids. But we have more than that. We have a city fully equipped with all the comforts and conveniences of modern life, one that is peopled by a class of persons that cannot be surpassed for enterprise, energy and public spirit. We have everything needed to make a residence here agreeable and profitable from every point of view. We have the resources and the attractions to make this the leading winter resort of the continent, and it depends very largely upon our own efforts how soon this is accomplished.

The secretary of state has decided that there shall be no election of a senator in the Twenty sixth senatorial district this year. If a senator should be elected from this district there would be 101 members in the state legislature which is one more than the limit fixed by the constitution. But on the other hand, if the Twenty-sixth district does not hold an election, the county of Gilpin will not be represented in the state senate and it is very doubtful whether it can constitutionally be deprived of its representation in this way. The dilemma is an awkward one and it is a striking illustration of the foolishness of the reapportionment bill as passed by the legislature.

THE REPUBLICANS AND THE TRUSTS.

IT IS characteristic of the Republican party to set it. If promptly and earnestly to the task of solving difficulties and remedying abuses as fast as they are brought to its attention.

Within the past few years there has been a great increase in the number and activity of the great corporations commonly known as the trusts. This has been due in large measure to the prosperity of the country under Republican rule which has encouraged and facilitated business operations of all kinds, in part to the expansion of our national commerce consequent upon the war with Spain and the annexation of the Spanish colonies, and in part it is due to the progressive evolution of the business and industrial organization.

That the trusts are an evil in themselves has not yet been demonstrated, but that they are attended by evils and associated with grave dangers to the state and the people cannot reasonably be disputed.

If the first problem is to be solved it must be solved by the Republican party, and that the party proposes to accomplish the task is evident both in the course of the national administration and in that of the party organizations in various states.

Of the various measures that have been proposed no one seems to be an adequate solution of the entire difficulty. A modification of the tariff, the enforced publicity of corporation affairs, state regulation and supervision, differential taxation, distribution of capital and other measures have points of merit, but also have their difficulties and their limitations. It may be that no combination of these will be found to work effectively, but let the search go on, a remedy can be found, it will probably be by trial and experiment to do considerable amount of experimenting.

The attitude of the Democratic party is in marked contrast with that of the Republicans. While the Republicans stand for protection, the Democratic party is for tariff revision, and the Republicans are for the trusts, the Democrats are for their destruction. The Democrats are for the people, the Republicans are for the trusts and the Republicans are for the people. Which party is entitled to the support of the people?

Some of the evils of the trusts are already being corrected by the courts, and the Republican party is working and solving the problems. All the very important property and all the very useful individual thing in life is not in trust. Only flower and vegetable gardens. The entire world is not in trust, but is under the direction of competent gardeners, and the results are the sale of flowers and vegetables distributed among the people. The advantages are obvious. The health giving, beautiful means of more money than employment. Let them alone if the silver, they are trying to do. Let professional philanthropists and farmers make a taste for the country, that will take them from the city streets, and put them on farms, and make them happy. Let them alone.

While this is not a long and valuable list, it is the only right of human existence, and in advance of the time when the people in the Republican party will find and understand that the Republican party will spend its energy, the people should therefore be patient, that it is to give us a very good, good, good,
